Rosa's Neighbor

I'm Sam Stahl, and I'm 39. I live directly across the street from Rosa and have no idea why the cops want my statement. I doubt any information I can provide would be helpful. The local cops need to stop wasting their time talking to me.

I did run over to Rosa's sometime before the cops showed up in front of her house. She borrowed my hose a few days ago, and she tends to forget to bring stuff back, and I needed it, so I figured I'd run over and get it myself and walked around the house to find it.

When I got to Rosa's outdoor hose, I noticed the pool guy was talking to some other tall guy with dark hair. I didn't pay them much attention, but it did sound like they could have been arguing. I found the hose and went home. I heard the pool guy has a daughter. I feel bad she no longer has a father, and I wish I had paid more attention to the guy he was talking to and what they were saying, so I could be more help.
